DIRECTOR-GENERAL CLOCKS THREE YEARS IN OFFICE

The Director-General, Prof. Isa Hayatu Chiroma, SAN, FCI Arb, FICMC marked three (3) years in office on January 11, 2021.

It will be recalled that the Director-General assumed office on 11th of January, 2018 as the 9th Director-General of the Nigerian Law School.

The Nigerian Law School has in about three (3) years experienced great and positive transformation in the areas of Academics and General Administration.

The Director-General has since assumption of office built long lasting relationships with Staff and Students, by touching their lives and giving them a sense of belonging. He has created an enabling learning environment for Students, and provided better and improved shelter for the Staff. Numerous completed and on-going projects both at the Headquarters and the campuses show that Prof. Isa Hayatu Chiroma, SAN is truly the man of the moment and leader of the rescue mission in the Nigerian Law School. The Nigerian Law School has witnessed and recorded in the period under review, landmark achievements that meet international best practices.

As we celebrate quietly his numerous achievements in this short period of dynamic leadership, we cannot but continue to thank God for his purposeful leadership and sound dispositions. Congratulations Sir, Nigerian Law School is working and to God be the glory.
